The 2022-2023 Barbara Wilensky Gopen Memorial Fellowship

Now Accepting Applications

What is the Barbara Wilensky Gopen Memorial Fellowship?

The Massachusetts Developmental Disabilities Network created the Barbara Wilensky Gopen Memorial Fellowship in 2001. The fellowship honors Barbara Wilensky Gopen. Barbara Wilensky Gopen was a disability advocate.

The Gopen Fellowship is for individuals with developmental disabilities. If you are accepted into the fellowship, you will be called a Gopen Fellow.

As a Gopen Fellow, you will come up with a project idea. Staff from the Institute for Community Inclusion (ICI) will help you with your project. We will help you learn leadership skills. We will also help you learn about disability policy, disability services, and disability advocacy.

What do Gopen Fellows do?

First, you come up with a project idea related to disability advocacy. Then, you spend one year working on your project at the ICI. Here are some examples of Gopen Fellow projects:

- Curriculum for Self-Advocacy Leadership Training
- Accessible Transportation Guide to Southeast Massachusetts
- Supporting businesses to hire people with disabilities
- A website with resources about Autism
- Creating opportunities for people with disabilities to start businesses
- Developing materials for law enforcement on engaging with people with disabilities

What kinds of activities will I do in the Gopen Fellowship?

As a Gopen Fellow, you will work on your project for 11 months. You will also do other activities, such as:

- Join meetings. Go to meetings at the ICI to help with your project.
- Go to Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and Related Disabilities (LEND) classes. These classes will be held in Boston. Classes are every Friday morning from September to May.
- Go to conferences and workshops. Go to events to learn about disability advocacy and services. You will also learn about what the government does.
- Meet with other advocates. Share your project with other people in the Massachusetts Developmental Disabilities Network.
- Update ICI about your project. Let us know how your project is going.
- Give a presentation. At the end of your fellowship, you can give a presentation about your project.
- Create a brochure, presentation, or something else that will help you share your work with other people. At the end of your project, you will create a product, like a brochure, presentation, or report.

How long is the Gopen Fellowship?

The Gopen Fellowship is one year long. It goes from August 15, 2022 – June 30, 2023. Gopen Fellows will spend 20 hours each week on fellowship activities.

Do Gopen Fellows get paid?

Yes, Gopen Fellows get a total of $20,000 for the year. As a fellow, you will get paid every month or every three months depending on your preference.

Where is the Gopen Fellowship?

The Gopen Fellowship is at the ICI in Dorchester, MA. Gopen Fellows can work remotely and/or in person at the ICI.

Am I eligible for the Gopen Fellowship?

- Do you live in Massachusetts?
- Are you a person with a developmental disability?
- Are you out of school and out of a transition program?
- Do you like working independently?

If you answered "yes" to all these questions, you are eligible to apply!

Can I work with another person on my project for the Gopen Fellowship?

Yes. You can work with another person who has a developmental disability on your project if you want. You can both apply to the fellowship together. If you apply with another person, you will split the money and Fellowship resources.

Will I have a mentor or advisor for the Gopen Fellowship?

Yes. You will work with a mentor on this project. We do not provide job coaches or support people. You can bring your own support person or job coach if you have one.

Tell us if you have any other accommodation needs. Let us know if you need anything to make the fellowship more accessible. We will provide accommodations.

Application Questions

How can I apply for the Gopen Fellowship?

Follow these instructions to apply for the Gopen Fellowship:

- 1. Write a 2-4-page proposal. This proposal must include:
 - your name on the first page
 - your project title: a name that describes your project
 - · your background and disability experience
 - a description of the project you want to work on in your fellowship
 - why you want to work on this project
 - how your project will benefit people with disabilities
 - what makes your project special
 - your specific project goal
 - a list of activities and when you want to complete them (for example, 1. "Do internet research about my project from July-August")

- a description of the final product you will create: will you make a brochure or a website? how will you share your project? how will it help people?
- what you hope will happen if you do this project: your project outcomes and impact
- what you want to do after the fellowship
- what kind of training or support you will need during the fellowship
- 2. Include your resume
- 3. Include three letters of reference from people who have worked with you
- 4. Email your proposal, resume, and three letters of reference to Berenise Reyes-Albino at berenise.albino@umb.edu. Your email subject line should be: "Gopen Fellowship Application (your last name)" by July 15 at 5pm.

If you already know what kind of project you would want to work on, you can send Berenise an email by July 5, 2022, with a description of your project idea. This will help us prepare.

Important Dates

How do you decide who will get to be the 2022-2023 Gopen Fellow?

We will review all fellowship applications. We will decide who is the fellow based on:

- how original the project idea is
- how much of a need there is for the project
- how big of an impact the project will have on people with disabilities
- how realistic the project is for the amount of time you have
- how much you will benefit from the Gopen Fellowship

Do you have any other questions about the Gopen Fellowship?

Contact Berenise Reyes Albino by email at Berenise. Albino aumb.edu if you have any questions.

The Gopen Fellowship is sponsored by the Massachusetts Developmental Disabilities Network and funded by the Administration on Community Living.
